CLUB WOMEN TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

Mrs. Martha Spangler, editor of the western club women department of the New West magazine, has been visiting the coast cities from San Diego to Seattle the past six weeks, interviewing the women in the observance of "Western Consumers' Week" and also inviting them to attend the council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Salt Lake City next June. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer of last Sunday says:

"Mrs. Martha Spangler, chairman of publicity for the General Federation council meeting to be held in Salt Lake City in June, spent a few days of the past week in Seattle, consulting with the club women of the city, urging the clubs to send the delegates to the time for the International and Coast Federation meeting, which immediately precedes the convening of the council. Mrs. Spangler states that there are to be unusual opportunities to view the scenic beauties surrounding Salt Lake. The interspersing of entertainment with the week's business will include one day in Ogden canyon, the guests of Ogden, and a special meeting to be held at Salt Lake beach. Idaho will be host at a luncheon also. Mrs. Spangler is interested in bringing before the club women the French-Capper bill, a pure fabric bill, whose passage, she says, is of particular interest to western woolmen. The women of the western states will, unlike, she also says, in April in observance of Western Consumers' Week. The club women over the United States are working up to the sagacity of those furthering this movement and the work is being closely observed as to the result toward the development of the western states."

REPARATION TERMS DECRIED BY SIMONS

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—(By The Associated Press).—Dr. Walter Simons, German foreign minister, speaking Wednesday before the Baden diet, declared that the German government should dare call upon Germany to perform a 42-year agreement under the conditions prescribed by the entente in the reparations demands. "Therefore," Dr. Simons declared, "we must refuse to sign such an undertaking. Germany's situation must become clear within the next few weeks. Two important factors in this clearing up of the situation will be, what is Germany's position in Upper Silesia and what are Germany's relations with the United States."

TO MEET TODAY ON RELIEF DRIVE

Committee to Discuss Plans for Raising of Armenian Fund

An indication of the serious conditions prevailing in Armenia, carrying the message that if American aid is not given the nation might disappear from the face of the earth, is contained in a letter written to the Near East Relief by John Price Jackson, who has studied conditions in the near east and is taking in the national campaign to bring relief.

The letter has been received by members of the Ogden committee, who, through the Weber club and other fraternal and civic organizations, have planned a campaign here with a dinner to be held in the Weber club February 25, at which all citizens are invited to attend.

The letter from Mr. Jackson follows: "I fear if the American people do not give even greater financial support than they are now doing and our government does not quickly take a strong and decisive political stand in behalf of the Armenians, the latter will gradually disappear as a nation from the face of the earth."

"Irrespective of the terrible human suffering the character of this disappearance will entail, it is an unspeakable pity that such a plucky little nation should finally lose the fight after having so bravely struggled for centuries."

The Weber club, with other Ogden organizations, has taken up the fight for funds here and hopes are entertained that Ogden may contribute an amount equal to other cities of its size in the United States.

Funds will be raised here through the dinner in the Weber club on the evening of February 25, when a charge of $10 a plate will be made and all food for the dinner contributed by Ogden merchants and others. Every cent raised will go for direct relief of the Armenians and other suffering people of the near east and the funds will be distributed through the United States army.

A meeting of representatives of all Ogden organizations will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Weber club at which time plans for the campaign here will be perfected. All club representatives are urged to be present.

CITY ENGINEER MAKES REPORT

Full Bridge on Washington, Enlarged Water System, Among Recommendations

Recommendation that a new full-width bridge be constructed across the Ogden river on Washington street and that the present steel bridge be moved further westward on the river at some convenient locality for the use of traffic in that vicinity, is contained in the annual report of Joseph M. Tracy, city engineer, submitted today to the board of city commissioners. The report is one of the most voluminous ever filed and contains 64 full pages.

MAY RECOMMENDATIONS

Many other recommendations for improvements are made which cover waterworks and street work. Enlargement of the city water distributing system is included in the recommendations with larger pipes to be installed throughout the city and additional valves and hydrants placed. To protect the city against possible damage to its water supply, suggestion is made that additional land be purchased by the city in the bottom under which lie the artesian wells in Ogden canyon.

WORK STORM SEWERS

Perfection of the city's water and power right in South Fork canyon is also recommended. Additional storm sewers are asked to prevent flooding by storm waters in the district bounded by Wall and Madison avenues and Ogden river and Twenty-seventh street.

Suggestion is also made that the city enter into a contract or make necessary arrangements for increasing the efficiency and reducing the price of the present street lights, in accordance with a clause in the contract with the Utah Power & Light company.

SUGGESTS WATER METERS

Installation of water meters to measure the flow to all residents of the city, is one of the important recommendations contained in the report in reference to perfecting the city water supply.

In conclusion of the report, Mr. Tracy wrote: "It is gratifying to express here my appreciation of the helpful support given me by the board of city commissioners in the several recommendations made, and for the uniform courtesy they have extended toward the department in all matters concerning the activities of the engineering department. The incidence of women employed being courteous and efficient."

The remainder of the report contains detailed figures of improvements and tables showing expenditures and other data.

TO PROBE ALLEGED GERMAN LOTTERY

As the results of letters received in Ogden regarding a "Grand Money Lottery for a Benevolent Purpose," which is being staged by Ernest Schultz of Berlin, Germany, an investigation may be started by postal authorities, according to word from the postoffice.

The lottery announces prizes amounting to $100,000 German marks. Tickets for the lottery are offered by Schultz at "two for $10, or two for three" English pounds.

A number of the letters, in sealed envelopes, have been received in this city, it is said. The sending of the material regarding the lottery is a violation of U. S. postal laws.

In the face of the proposition, local postoffice officials believe that the alleged lottery is merely a ruse to defraud the susceptible of their money.

Hearing of the case of Ephraim P. Ellison against the Ogden Packing & Provision company, James Pingree and others on an order issued by James N.
